Read the following passage and answer questions that follow

Mrs Muroyi is a widow, childless and lonely. All her children died at birth and lastly, she lost her husband. She has no one to share her problems with because people in the village do not want to associate with her. They accuse her of being a witch who is causing death in the village. They claim that she ate her children by herself and also her husband. Mrs Muroyi always prays and assures herself that there is only one person who loves and cares for her, God. This idea gives peace and comfort in her heart. She also wishes that one day people in her village will come to understand and know the truth about her.
